LONG DELEGATES ARE SEATED

Democratic Chiefs

Senator Huey Long, of Louisiana, famous for receiving visiting dignitaries in his pajamas—says he'll swing his state to Roosevelt.

"Alfalfa Bill" Murray hitch-hiked for governor of Oklahoma, now wants to pick up a ride in the March 4 inaugural parade.

William G. McAdoo, of California... engaged in trying to garner a few votes for "Texas Jack."

Governor Ritchie, of Maryland... long-time friend of Al Smith... some folks predict this "dark horse" will inherit Al's brown derby, which he is wearing here.

Taxpayers Ass'n. Calls Meeting in Hope, 10 Thursday

County Wide Group to Organize for Lower Level Taxation

TO CURTAIL EXPENSE

Association to Ask Action in State, County and City

A county-wide meeting to complete the organization of a Hempstead County Taxpayers association has been called for 10 o'clock Thursday morning at Hope city hall.

Preliminary plans for the association were made last Thursday at a meeting which elected L. A. Foster chairman. Mr. Foster appointed the following executive committee:

Steve Carrigan, E. S. Greening, W. K. Lemley, S. H. Bryant, of Hope; J. H. Kent, south of Hope; W. E. Cox, Jr., of Fulton; and A. H. Wade, of Bleavins.

The association, according to its announcement of next Thursday's meeting, aims to secure reduced expenses and taxes in state, county and municipal government.

Similar organizations have been completed since last fall in many counties of Arkansas, but this is the first of its kind in Hempstead.

The initial meeting last Thursday, June 23, was attended by about 50 persons, from which nucleus a county-wide organization is to be attempted this Thursday.

Kiwanis to Visit McCaskill Friday

Dr. J. E. Gentry to Be Host There at 8:15 O'Clock

McCaskill is this Friday's point of call for the Kiwanis club good will trippers, according to plans announced at an informal meeting of the club at the home of John Conley Monday night.

Dr. J. E. Gentry, of McCaskill, is making arrangements for the meeting, which is to be held at 8:15 at the school house there. John P. Cox, Hope druggist, is to be the principal speaker. John Ridgill and his five piece string band is to furnish the music for the occasion. Little Miss Joy Ramsey is to do an acrobatic dance number. Mrs. John Wellborn has been asked to lead in community singing.

The occasion of the informal meet Monday night was in observance of All-Kiwanis Night, which is observed by the 1,800 Kiwanis clubs at the same hour. Wm. O. Harris, of Los Angeles, and international president of the organization, delivered an address to the yearly convention at Detroit at that hour, which was broadcast over the NBC chain. Many Hope people listened in on the broadcast.

Harris said, in part, "We are justified in our faith in the future of Kiwanis. I am strongly of the opinion that in all our history we have never seen a more important time for us to display an active interest in government and a constructive attitude for aiding the recovery of business, employment, agricultural and industrial warfare."

Charles Dana Gibson has charge of Friday night's Kiwanis program, it was announced.

Boy, Girl Drowned Near Arkadelphia

Girl's Body Recovered—Boy Still Missing, in Ouachita River

ARKADELPHIA.—(AP)—Miss Nellie Phelps, 18, and Clifford Thompson, Jr., were drowned in the Ouachita river six miles east of here early Tuesday.

They were members of a swimming party. Details of the accident were not learned. The girl's body was recovered, but the boy is still missing.

Thompson, 19, lived here. Miss Phelps lived with her father at Brown Springs, near here.

Prisoners' Lament

TROY, N. Y.—Prisoners at the Waton county jail in Lake George have yelled for their rights. It seems that the sheriff has housed a flock of game-cocks in the jail as evidence in a cock-fight arrest. Every morning at the break of dawn the cocks swell out their chests, take a deep breath and burst forth in the crows they are famous for. This, of course, interrupts the beauty slumbers of the prisoners, and they have protested to the sheriff.

Negro Wounded in Chicken-Coop Raid

Three Leave in Various Directions as Shotgun Bark in Night

Aroused from sleep late Monday night by squawking chickens, V. C. Johnson, Riley Wellborn and Joe Taulbee, farmers living a few miles south of Hope, armed themselves with shotguns and proceeded to investigate.

The three went to the chicken house of Johnson where they discovered three negroes with several chickens tied up in a gunny-sack.

Ordered to drop the fowls, the negroes fled in different directions. The farmers fired several rounds of ammunition. One negro dropped to the ground a few yards from the chicken house when a lead took effect in one of his knees. He was said not to be seriously hurt, however.

It was not known whether the other two were wounded, as they escaped.

LaFollette Progressives Face "Tax Revolt" in Wisconsin

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Series Writer
MADISON, Wis.—The Stalwarts are marching once more to drive the progressive LaFollette from political power in Wisconsin.

It looks, according to political leaders on both sides like a knock-down-drag-out fight. Income taxes have been doubled in order to pay for Governor Philip F. LaFollette's $6,500,000 unemployment relief program and most people with big incomes are pretty sore.

The Stalwarts, as the conservative regular Republicans are called in this state, will have a large campaign chest. Two Big Fights
There are two fights of national interest which will be concluded in the Wisconsin Republican primaries of next September.
Phil LaFollette, the idealistic but peppy and practical 35-year-old son of "Old Bob," will be opposed for

Curtis Sought to Incriminate Nurse, Lindy Tells Court

LED A LONG CHASE

Aviator Tells How Curtis Cast Suspicion Upon Betty Gow

FLEMINGTON, N. J.—(AP)—Colonel Lindbergh testified Tuesday afternoon that the activities of Curtis had impeded both his own and police efforts to trace the kidnap-murderers of his baby.

He said he practically severed connections with Dr. John (Jafsie) Condon, Bronx intermediary, when Curtis told him he had contacted the kidnapers whom Condon paid the ransom money to.

FLEMINGTON, N. J.—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh testified Tuesday that John Hughes Curtis told him he had information that the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby was arranged by a member of the Lindbergh household and that he thought the person was a girl.

For the second day the airman took the stand in the trial of Curtis for hindering the capture of the baby's kidnapers, and told of a long series of journeys with Curtis in efforts to contact the kidnapers along the coast—all of which were futile.

He then testified that Curtis told him the kidnapers had disclosed to him that a member of the flier's household was implicated.

Among the spectators in the courtroom who heard this testimony were Betty Gow, the baby's nurse, and Mrs. Ollie Wheatley, housekeeper, both of whom had been exonerated by Colonel Lindbergh.

Second Negro May Die of Gun Wound

Willie Stuart, 17, May Be Victim of Another Shooting

Willie Stuart, 17-year-old negro, and a reputed police character, is lying unconscious in Julia Chester hospital with a shotgun wound in his head.

Lee Hendrix, another negro, is held in the Washington jail for investigation in connection with the shooting. No charge has been filed against Hendrix, deputy prosecuting attorney John Vesey said Tuesday, pending the outcome of Stuart's wound.

The shooting occurred Monday afternoon at the Hendrix home, two and a half miles west of Hope.

Chief of Police Claude Stuart and deputy sheriff Will Porter investigated the shooting and arrested Hendrix as a suspect. The officers were unable to say what caused the shooting.

A report from Julia Chester hospital said Stuart was shot above the right ear, and that a few of the shots had penetrated his brain and lodged in his eyes.

The outbreak Monday afternoon was the second negro shooting affair in Hempstead county within the last three days.

Willie Martin, Fulton negro, was fatally wounded Sunday morning by Alonzo Smith, negro, when the two fought in a railroad car at Fulton.

"Action" at Convention

Above—Bent the hand, doesn't it, the way some of these presidential aspirants go about drumming up votes for themselves? Here's Gov. "Alfalfa Bill" Murray, of Oklahoma, trying out the bass drum that a gifted little hand of Oklahoma City brought to Chicago to aid in the governor's boom for the Democratic nomination.

300 Millions for Aid, Agreed Upon

States to Administer 200 Millions—President, the Balance

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Congressional conferees on the unemployment relief bill agreed Tuesday on a 300-million-dollar emergency aid fund to be administered by the president on the basis of actual needs.

Of this amount, 200 millions will be allocated to the states on a basis of population, and 100 millions to be distributed as the president sees fit.

Dr. Brough to Speak Here Tuesday Night

Dr. C. H. Brough, candidate for the United States senate, brings his campaign into Southwest Arkansas Tuesday night with an address at 8 o'clock at Hope city hall. He is a former governor, and widely known orator.

Two Little Words

CALGARY, Alta.—Two little words—15 big days added to Nels Bronson's jail sentence. After pleading guilty to a charge of begging, Bronson faced Magistrate Sanders. The official gave Nels 15 days in jail.

"Capitalists again," Nels said. "Fifteen additional days for that remark," barked Magistrate Sanders.

Still Makes Money

PARIS.—There's no depression as far as the Eiffel Tower is concerned. Official figures show that the tower carried $114,723 last year in sightseeing fees. This is an excess of $33,117 over the earnings of the tower in 1930. The tower is in its forty-fourth year, having been erected for the Paris Exhibition of 1889.

LaFollette Progressives Face "Tax Revolt" in Wisconsin

renomination by former Governor Walter J. Kohler, the middle-aged millionaire manufacturer of bathroom fixtures.

John B. Chapple, the publisher from Ashland who apparently has the blessing of the Hoover administration, is going hammer and tongs after the seat of U. S. Senator John J. Blaine, a leader in the LaFollette group.

The results, especially in the governorship fight where the contest is thought likely to be closest, should provide a real test of the widespread theory that American voters are turning conservative rather than toward the left.

Convention Reveals Political Strategy

Byron Price, of Associated Press, Compares Old-Time Campaign Cries With Demand of Roosevelt Men for "New Deal" at Chicago

By BYRON PRICE
(Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington)

However large a place the democratic convention may attain eventually in political history, one of its chief contributions to its era is sure to be a graphic objection lesson in campaign strategy.

Two schools of political management, as well as two schools of political philosophy, came to grips as soon as the leaders began to assemble in Chicago.

On the one side were aligned immediately most of the old-timers of the party—men like Smith, McAdoo, Hague, Ritchie, Reed and Shouse, clever men who had learned their lesson in the hard school of experience, and who set out in the quiet of the conference room to apply those lessons to 1932 to the detriment of Governor Roosevelt.

A Lack of Experience
On the other side the lack of experience was noticeable at once. The effort from the start was to nominate the governor with a rush and an hurrah, with more dependence placed on the momentum of the cause than on anything learned from the past, and more attention given—seemingly—to sentiment and enthusiasm than to organization.

At the very beginning of the Chicago venture, the Roosevelt men made no secret of their desire to get it over with quickly. Their strategy was that of swift, almost pell-mell attack. The opposition steadfastly predicted that if the Roosevelt tide could be held back for three or four ballots, that would be the end of it.

These two conflicting methods of campaigning explain many things

2-3 RULE TO STAND

Compromise Over-Night Is Repudiated, Old Rule Sustained

CHICAGO.—(AP)—John S. Hartley, chairman of the credentials committee, read a report seating the Long faction of Louisiana, and the Einar Hordale faction in Minnesota, at the opening of Tuesday's session of the Democratic national convention.

Floor fights on the contests were then begun.

Meanwhile, in the state capitals the Shouse-Walsh issue was being decided, with both sides claiming victory.

Shouse is backed by the Smith-Rankin forces for permanent chairman, while the Roosevelt men are behind Walsh.

Two-Thirds Rule Upheld

CHICAGO.—(AP)—The rules of the last Democratic convention, requiring a two-thirds majority for nomination of the presidential candidate, were adopted by the rules committee late Tuesday after a compromise measure had been set aside.

No Change in Rules

CHICAGO.—(AP)—Roosevelt leaders called off all proposals for any change in the two-thirds nominating rule Tuesday as the report from the rules committee impended.

Their decision reaffirmed the original announcement of Mr. Roosevelt, reversed an over-night development in the important rules committee.

Proposed Compromise

The committee, despite the announcement of Roosevelt leaders, had gone on record by a vote of 30 to 20 as favoring a compromise, by which the two-thirds rule would be ditched in favor of a simple majority, if no candidate were nominated at the end of the first six ballots.

In a statement from Albany Tuesday morning, Governor Roosevelt said he had no part whatever in the adoption of this compromise by the convention rules committee Monday night.

Withdrawal Proposal

James A. Farley, spokesman for Governor Roosevelt, made a surprise appearance before the rules committee and announced he favored retention of the two-thirds rule throughout the convention.

Chairman Kremer then ordered a new meeting of the rules committee. Leaders of the minority opposed to Roosevelt hailed this new move as a "complete surrender" on the two-thirds vote issue.

Negro Caught in Gasoline Robbery

Leo Cook Held for Alleged Theft at Wellborn Station

Leo Cook, Hope negro, is being held in the city jail charged with robbing Wellborn's Service station on South Main street Monday night.

The negro drove a truck into the station about 11:30 o'clock Monday night, unlocked a gas pump and obtained about 10 gallons of gas when he was discovered by Jack Cornelius, who lives across the street.

When Mr. Cornelius telephoned officers the negro headed his truck down the Lewisville highway. He later turned his machine around and started back for Hope where he was met by Chief of Police Claude Stuart and Night Officer John Turner.

After a chase down Main street the negro crossed over to South Walnut and was caught by officers near Gray's store.

Assault and Battery Case Is Dismissed

The case of Henry and Jack Cornelius, held on separate charges of assault and battery, was dismissed on a motion of the prosecuting witness, J. O. Bryan, in Municipal court Monday. John Turner was the arresting officer in the Cornelius case.

Gus Jones, negro, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $50 and cost on a charge of carrying a pistol before Judge Gentry Monday. J. B. Arnett was the arresting officer. Idell Hogan was the defendant, charged with unlawful possession, was continued when the defendant agreed to move from the house she occupies.

Georgia Voting by Mail Is Difficult

Elector Must Give 30 Days Notice and Keep Vote Secret

ATLANTA.—(AP)—In Georgia a voter may cast his ballot by mail, provided he does so with legal ceremony and secrecy.

He must, if to be absent from the state on election day, give notice in writing 30 days before the vote is to be cast. Registrars, after satisfying themselves the voter is qualified, forward blank ballots by registered mail.

The voter must open the sealed envelope, marked "ballot within" only in the presence of the postmaster or his assistant. He then proceeds to mark the ballot "without assistance" and still in the presence of the post-office official, replaces it in an envelope and seals it without disclosing how he has voted. After signature of the postmaster official has been attached (as witness, the ballot may then be mailed to the proper election officials.

Siam Has Become Limited Kingdom

King Parajadhipok Left on Throne of Country, However

BANGKOK, Siam.—(AP)—A new Siam with a constitution and a political party was born Monday of last week's revolution and King Parajadhipok remained monarch. But by a proclamation signed by his own hand, his powers are no longer absolute, for he legalized all the acts of the Peoples party, under whose banner the revolutionists took over power Friday.

He also accepted their plan of a constitution, after which he was proclaimed king again.

Immediately the king began reading and studying an actual draft of a proposed constitution and promised further announcements about the program.
